We had some great slides of Yugo. and a bit of history by the Historian Andy Gulermovich, If you didn't come because you didn't want to see Dubrovnik one more time, then you lost. Some of these were shots I have never seen before, and of course the history to go with it was very enlightening. Thanks, Andy. We needed it to refresh our memories . . . The Solanos went on vacation to get some warmth – they ended up in snow, on the coast in central Calif??? Can't be! . . . . Take a good look at Steve Zupan the next time you see him. He looks just like Marcus Welby . . . . Thanks to Carol Ivelich, we had breakfast out the other morning and our tag came to us marked in Yugoslav "Happy New Year." Same to you, Carol . . . . Guess who was 54 on the first of Jan.?? Jim?? . . . . You know who was first to call in and offer her help for Ron to cook? It was Vera Gugale. Thanks, Vera . . . . New member George Moncovich is back in town after being away for 30 years. Welcome home and welcome to YACO, George . . . . The reservations are coming in very slowly for the FREE TO MEMBERS Kupus Dinner. Don't miss out. Call in now. No guests please . . . . We are still looking for some help. We need a refreshment (wine, etc. department) chairman, July Parade Entry, Apple Festival Parade entry, Apple Festival Bazaar booth. If you can help in any of these places, please call me . . . . I just remembered what Marcus Welby's real name is. How about Robert Young? Not bad for an old lady . . . . Familiar Faces: Vera Gugale, Jo Puhera, Nick Derpich, Lena Derpich, Steve and Slavica Zalac, Nina Matulich, Andy and Pat Gulermovich, Nick Miloslavich, Marcia Kohl, Stella Lucuch, Naida Nicholas, Ruza Polovina, Ella Korach, Mary Basich, Zarko Radich, John Basor . . . . Good Thoughts and Positive Energies go out to Margaret Biskup.. . . .

Toodle . . . ooo. See you at the KUPUS DINNER!

HAVE A HAPPY . . . .

IN EUROPE THEY HUG

by Nick Miloslavicb

Eight years ago I was very fortunate because I got to travel to Europe and Yugoslavia with my parents and four brothers.

One brother and I spent a month travelling around Europe by train. My family reunited in Italy and took the ferry across the Adriatic to Dubrovnik where we were greeted by cousins.

It was a wonderful trip. We saw many different cultures and ways of life, but I wouldn't trade California living for any of them.

There is, however, a piece of lifestyle in Yugoslavia and across Europe that I wish was a part of American culture. And I believe American society suffers because of its absence. It is the ability to hug.

I was 21 years old and my brother 22 when we rode the trains around Europe. And it was a shock to me when I saw girls hugging girls, guys hugging guys, and people kissing cheeks everywhere. I had grown up in Oakland, just across the bay from a city where a guy hugging a guy meant something very significant. I thought these Europeans were awfully weird doing all this hugging and kissing everywhere.

I was in Yugoslavia at about the 6th week of my trip when it finally dawned on me.

The Europeans aren't the weird ones. It's the Americans who are weird because they don't hug. We dummies just shake hands. American society seems to think there is something wrong with men hugging. And I'm sure this attitude was around long before gays came out of the closet.

I've heard reports that said over 95% of Americans would like to get hugged more often; that people who hug a lot are happier and have less mental depression, but that at the same time most people fear initiating a hug. So two friends end up shaking hands when both would really like a hug.

I think hugging is a part of Yugoslavian culture that we should adopt at our gatherings. We should hug more. There is no reason not to, and it's good for our health.

The next time you see me at a meeting, remember that I'm not afraid to hug.

JOIN US TODAY

YACO was established in 1979 as a non-profit club without political or religious ties for the sole purpose of bringing together Yugoslavs and other interested persons to make known and to preserve our Slavic heritage. We are proud that among our membership we have families and individuals whose roots represent each region of present-day Yugoslavia, as well as non-slavic members who support the club's goals.

A year-around series of programs and events has proven an enjoyable way for YACO to provide its focus on Slavic heritage. Such activities include picnics, lectures and slide presentations on Yugoslavia and its historic culture, plus potluck and sit-down dinners. We also publish a monthly newsletter, THE KALIFORNSKI, full of interesting articles, recipes, and news of our area's Yugoslav community.

Our meetings (the first Sunday of each month) may include a potluck, special dinner, films, dancing, and raffles, plus we hold an annual July barbeque.

Won't you accept our invitation to join us? We're sure you'll soon find YACO to be one of your favorite clubs.

Our dues are as follows:

NEW DEADLINE

A new DEADLINE has been set for the 10th of each month so that we might get the paper out even earlier. It seems that our members out of Watsonville are not receiving their KALIFORNSKI early enough to plan on attending any of our programs. Members in Watsonville receive their copies at least two days after mailing so it seems to be a problem with a hold up at the post office. If I don't have the information in time, I will not be able to publish it until the next issue. REMEMBER to send me any information by the 10th of each month.
